FOREWORD

In the publication of the 1948 edition of the CARDINAL, we, the Senior Class, have endeavored to present to you, the student body, a true picture of your high school life. If this annual brings back memories of happy school days, and if it can be displayed with admiration, then our purpose of presenting to you this annual will not have been in vain.

DEDICATION

In admiration and respect, we, the seniors, dedicate this, the fifteenth volume of the CARDINAL, to MISS CATHERINE LONG, who has made our commercial department and Hi-Life a success.

Her friendly ways, her constant encouragement and her unselfish service will always be remembered by the Class of '48.

CLASS HISTORY

Now that we, the Seniors of nineteen hundred forty-eight, have come to the day of graduation, we look back into the years we have spent in Newton-Conover Hi to see what we have accomplished.

First, we notice ninety-two "green" freshmen entering the "big building." We ran from room to room trying to find out what room we should be in. But we soon learned what was expected of us and where our place was. For our able leader we chose Cyril (Dib) Yancey. This year was very profitable to us, not only in books, but also in the making of new friends.

The sophomore year was a great thrill for all because we were no longer called "green freshmen." Joyce Rockett (Mrs. John Yancey) led us through a successful year.

We looked forward to our junior year with wide eyes because we were to be the proud publishers of our school paper, the Hi-Life. Then we selected our class rings which were a real treat for all. With the coming of spring everyone was in a whirl planning for the most elaborate Junior-Senior Banquet Newton-Conover Hi had ever seen. Fred Patterson was our capable leader for that year.

Now we have come to nineteen hundred forty-eight, the year of graduation for fifty-one seniors. Johnnie Dellinger was chosen president to lead us through. An important task for us was the publication of our yearbook, the CARDINAL, which, under the able guidance of Joe Epps, was a success and will always be a dear memory to all of us.

CLASS SONG

Tune: "It's Only Make Believe"

When we're gone from you, dear Newton Hi,
We will make believe we're still with you.
We'll remember the things that we used to do,
Then we'll sigh, maybe ery, for love of you.
As the years go by we'll dream with joy,
As we walk along the road of life.
And we'll make believe that we're still with you,
We can proudly say,
We love you.

Sam Kincaid and Billy Fox

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of '48, having come to the close of our high school days, are reluctant to leave without first knowing that our possessions and talents are well taken care of; therefore, we do publish and declare that this is our last will and testament:

To the Juniors we leave our senior privileges, our annual, our store, our play and all other problems of Seniors.

To the Sophomores we leave our dignified ways.

To the Freshmen we leave our promptness.

To the School Board, Superintendent, Principal, and members of the Faculty, we do hereby express our thanks and appreciation for the help they have given us during our days at N. C. H. S.

To the individuals and to lower classmates we leave our personal talents as follows:

I, Dib Yancey, do will and bequeath my conceit and athletic ability to whoever is fortunate enough to have them

I, Peggy Herman, do hereby will and bequeath my big mouth and love for friendship to Lorene Setzer.

I, Lowren Furr, do hereby will and bequeath to Miss Shivers my worn-out English book.

I, Nellie Eckard, do hereby will my love for "Jack's" to Margie Nell Simmons.

I, Nancy Workman, do hereby will my back budgets in typing to whoever can make them up.

I, Rachel Allen, do will and bequeath my black hair and blue eyes to Mary Nell Cline.

I, Barbara Bolick, do will my love for Winston-Salem to Janice Brady.

I, William Garris, do will my position on the basketball team to Leonard Butler.

I, Billy Butler, do hereby will to J. C. Yancey my position on the basketball team.

I, Frances Link, do hereby will and bequeath to Pauline Poovey my silly giggle.

I, Richard Alexander, do will my ability to make zeros in algebra to some unlucky person.

We, Johnnie Dellinger and "Moe" Fox, do will and bequeath our ability to whisker the girls to whoever is man enough to grow a beard.

I, Fredrick Setzer, do hereby will to Hub Huffman my speed in typing.

I, Nelma Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in home room one to Betty Misenheimer.

I, Dora Jean Melchor, do hereby will my love to laugh to Martha Nell Kaylor.

I, Dot Jones, do hereby will my love for Maiden to Loren Teague.

I, Betty Dean Stinson, do will my long hair to Priscilla Thornburg.

I, Theda Hollar, do will to Susan Stearns my love for tall boys.

I, Nellie Buckner, do hereby will my love for Atlanta, Georgia, to Sally Drum.

I, Wadine Martin, do will my love for brown hair to Phyllis Saunders and Joan Seagle.

I, Rudolph McRee, do will and bequeath to Walter Holland my love for English.

I, Sidney Cline, do will my love for majorettes to Harry Warlick.

I, Willard Workman, do will my big feet to one of the Sigmon boys.

I, John Long Herman, do will and bequeath my blond hair to Dick Hewitt.

I, Eddie Simmons, do will and bequeath my position as Drum Major to anyone who is unfortunate enough to get it.

I, Imogene Rockett, do will and bequeath my red sweater to Peggy Hawn.

I, Glenn McKinnis, do will my love to try to do English to Joe Hahn.

I, Gerald Abernethy, do will my muscles to Fred Biggers.

I, Elizabeth Benfield, will my love for blond sailors to Betty Benfield.

I, Nethelce Williams, do will and bequeath to Janice Brady my position as the biggest flirt in the senior class.

I, Charles Epps, will my athletic ability to Sammy Rowe and Harry Warlick, whom I have tried to teach for many years. (Don't let me down.)

I, Sue Betty McCarter, do hereby will and bequeath to Susan Stearns my position as chief ticket girl.

I, Jimmy Bolick, do will to O. C. Isenhour my love for English.

I, Mary Lee Smyre, do hereby will my love for seniors to W. T. Lemon.

I, Dot Setzer, do will to Betty Bostian my seat in typing class.

I, Joe Epps, do will to Harry Warlick my love for teachers, brownettes and my conceit.

I, Betty Lackey, do will my ability to move around quickly to Millie Hewitt and Mr. Rhyne.

I, Sam Kincaid, do will my sarcasm to Virginia Herman, who will put it to good use.

I, Marcus Rowe, do will my ability to tell falsehoods to Patricia Coley.

I, Dixie Spencer, do hereby will my love for going steady to Mary Ann Killian.

I, Catherine Setzer, do will and bequeath to Margaret Reitzel my love for the Navy.

I, Yvonne Martin, do will my fickle ways to Carolyn Mitchem.

I, Charles Lofland, do will my basketball ability to Joe Furr.

I, Clyde Fortenbury, do will my cue stick at Sid's to Mont Little.

I, Doris Wilson, do will my love for math to Ralph Wilkinson.

I, Fred Patterson, do will my love for English to Walter Holland.

I, Bill Gilbert, do will my ability to learn English to Eddie Ray Sigmon.

I, Dorothy Cline (Mrs. Hampton Schell) do will my love for Conover to Choo-Choo Simmons.

I, Eunice Loftin, do will and bequeath my home room jokes to Bobby Rockett, in hopes he will pass them on.

I, Doris Jean Hewitt, do will and bequeath to my brother, Wally, my love for Balls Creek.

Signed, sealed, and declared by the Senior Class to be its last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at its request, do suscribe our names as witnesses thereto:

DOROTHY CLINE, Testator

WITNESSES: RACHEL ALLEN, CYRIL YANCEY, DIXIE SPENCER

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Mr. Havnaer and I have just completed a wonderful new invention. We have been working on it for six months. We call it the SM and YH. It enables us to gaze years into the future. Just for fun, I'm going to look into the device and see what the seniors of 1947 and 1948 will be doing in several years.

First, I see Jimmy Bolick, Gerald Abernathy and Richard Alexander, civil engineers, working in New York.

The former Misses Dorothy Jones, Betty Deane Stinson and Doris Wilson have entered the holy bonds of matrimony and are very happy housewives.

Billy Fox is making a world wide campaign for the March of Dimes. Johnny Dellinger is his capable campaign manager.

Yvonne Martin and Nellie Buckner are nurses at the Charlotte Memorial Hospital.

Clyde Fortenbury is still working in the Dixie Home Store. Incidentally, he is manager now and Sidney Cline is assistant manager.

Theda Hollar and Betty Lackey have a musical radio program. If you happen to be at home on Wednesday evening at 8:30, listen in.

Nancy Workman and Nelma Smith are famous secretaries in Chicago.

Joe and Charles Epps are attending Duke University and are planning exciting careers.

Nethelee Williams and Dora Jean Melchor are Powers' Models in New York City.

Billy Butler now has a Portrait Studio of his own. If anyone is interested in having his picture taken, please notify Glenn McKinnis, his advertising agent.

Peggy Herman is a private secretary. She is engaged to marry her boss in June.

The world famous author, Eddie Simmons, is writing another novel entitled Tomorrow is Forever. His private secretary is Imogene Rockett.

Willard Workman and Rudolph McRee are teaching school in California.

Sam Kincaid and Charles Lofland own a Soda Shop in Conover. Ed Garris and Bill Gilbert are their soda jerks.

Frances Link, Eunice Loftin and Dixie Spencer are newspaper reporters for "The Chronicle." This paper is owned by Marcus Rowe and Cyril Yancey.

Doris Jean Hewitt, Nellie Eckard, and Wadine Martin are planning lifelong careers. Each one is planning to be married in the summer.

Frederick Setzer and John Long Herman are joint owners in a clothing store for men. Men, if you need a new suit or hat, don't hesitate to call the Setzer-Herman Clothing Store in Newton.

Barbara Bolick and Mary Lee Smyre are models in California.

Rachel Allen and Catherine Setzer are Bookkeepers in Denver, Colorado. They are making successes of their careers too.

Elizabeth Benfield and Dot Setzer have recently become brides. They are living in Charlotte now.

Fred Patterson is studying to be a surgeon at Wake Forest. He expects to graduate next year.

Just before I saw my future, Mr. Havnaer broke the SM and YH by trying to add another gadget to it. Oh, well, it is said that things don't always work out the way you plan them. Maybe we will have better luck next time.

SCHOOL SONG

Faithful and ever loyal,
We will boost our dear ole Hi.
Let every heart sing,
Let every voice ring.
There's no time to grieve or sigh.
But ever onward our course pursuing,
Let defeat ne'er ardor cool.
For, united, we will boost our dear ole
Newton-Conover Hi.

Newton, N. C.
September 13, 48

Dearest Selma,

I have enjoyed living your friend and having you for a friend these past ten years. I hope I shall always be your friend!

We certainly have had some good times together, haven't we? after all, we are two crazy nuts! Even though you are the craziest, we have had some wonderful times.

I know we'll have fun when we go to Taylorsville! I mean Wagon and all the rest! Wah? Wagon sure is cute. No? Well, Bob M. is the cutest!

Remember the time I told you Robert had gone to the army, and you didn't feel so very well? How, you had "it" BAD!!! Well, I had "it" bad, too! Yes?

That sure was good coconut pie that day you made. We will have to make some more sometime!

All this goes to show I mean you are as cute as a little fuzzy bug!

SUMMARY FOOTBALL SEASON

Since the Devils lost eight of their starting players, they had a very bad season losing 8 and winning 2 games. Under the leadership of Captain Mark Rowe, the Devils showed great spirit which will long be remembered.

DEVILS LOSE OPENER

Newton Red Devils dropped their opener to the Tech Wolves by the score of 19-13. Big Cyril Yancey blasted Tech with an 85 yard touchdown run. Captain Rowe blocked an attempted quick quick and Joe Epps fell upon it giving the Devils their second touchdown. Due to lack of experience and practice the Devils went down in defeat.

DEVILS BOW TO MARION

Hopes of winning the conference championship faded with the loss to Marion. Yancey, C. Epps, and Rowe, the big three, fought hard but in vain. At the end of the fourth quarter the score was 13-0.

RED DEVILS AND WOLVES TIE 13-13

The Devils came from behind in the last quarter tying the Lincolnton Wolves 13-13. Lofland's passing and Huffman's receiving gave the Devils their first touchdown. Cyril Yancey galloped 25 yards for the second score after blocking a Lincolnton punt. The game ended in a 13-13 tie.

DEVILS TOP STATESVILLE 6-0

The Devils marked up their first victory in a non-conference battle with Statesville. The only score of the game came in the last quarter when Yancey galloped 45 yards for the tally.

TORNADOES SINK DEVILS

The Tornadoes walloped the Devils after three starters were forced to leave the game with injuries. With the departure of Yancey, Warlick, and Hewitt, the Tornadoes found it quite easy to nose out with the final score of 20-2.

SHELBY MAULS DEVILS

The out-weighed Devils took to the field for their first home game. The Shelby eleven racked up a 26-0 victory over the Devils. Joe Epps, right end, suffered a broken arm.

CHERRYVILLE LICKS DEVILS 44-6

The Devils took their worst defeat from Cherryville in a home game by the score of 44-6. Long and Barkley stood out for the Devils with brilliant defensive play.

WILDCATS DOWN DEVILS

With half the starters gone the Devils journeyed to Morganton to suffer another defeat. With Lofland's passing the only hope of scoring, the Devils failed to score because of bad weather. The Devils returned home defeated 33-0.

DEVILS DEFEATED BY MOORES

The Devils suffered another defeat in a non-conference tilt to Mooresville. The small but fighting Devil team held the Mooresville powerhouse to a score of 13-0. J. C. Yancey was Newton's whole offense.

DEVILS DEFEAT BEARCATS

Fighting hard all the way the Devils defeated the Lenoir Bearcats 21-18 to win their home-coming game. Huffman's toe was the deciding factor making all three conversions good.

HANES TAKES DEVILS 33-18

The last game of the season was played at Hanes High in Winston-Salem. The weary Devils took to the field and lost their last game. Rowe, Huffman, and Yancey led the Devils.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Newton-Conover High School Red Devils, defending Western Conference champions, showed the force of their powerful team again this season.

DEVILS BLAST TECH

The Devils took the Tech five by a score of 44-35 in the opening game of the Devils' season. The credit of this game went to the fast breaking of Warlick and Rowe.

N-C TAKES WILDCATS

The second victory of the season was taken from Morganton by the score of 37-28. Epps and Lofland shared the honors.

N-C WHIPS R-S

The co-champions, Rutherfordton-Spindale, met more than their match when they went down under the mighty Devils by 38-22. Lofland and Yancey put on a last quarter spurt to put the Devils way out front.

DEVILS TRIP CHERRIES

The Devils tripped the Cherryville five by a score of 51-12. The powerful N-C team played spectacular ball. Again Epps led his team with thirty points.

DEVILS SINK LINKS

The Devils journeyed to Lincolnton and kept their winning record in tact by turning back the strong Lincolnton team. The Links were strong, but not strong enough. The final score was 29-19.

DEVILS OUTPLAY MORGANTON

The Devils took on Morganton again only to defeat them by a larger score than before. Lofland and Yancey blasted forth in the final period, and when the smoke cleared the Devils were out front 49-24.

SHELBY BOWS TO DEVILS

Remembering the football score of last season the Devils got sweet revenge by defeating the Shelby team 58-28. Epps and Rowe played spectacular ball.

N. C. S. D. PUSHED ASIDE BY DEVILS

The Devils again went on a rampage by defeating N. C. S. D. 55-34. Epps, captain of the team, hit thirty points. Rowe played a marvelous game.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Newton-Conover Devilettes have had one of their most successful seasons in years. Out of their six (6) conference games they have won four (4).

NEWTON BEATS MORGANTON

One of the most exciting girls' games witnessed in our gymnasium was between Morganton and Newton, Newton winning by one point. The final score was 21-20. Newton then met Morganton on their own court on January 28 to beat them again. This time by an even greater score of 26-19.

DEVILETTES SWAMP CHERRIES

The Devilettes swamped the Cherryville sextet by a 40-25 score. The forwards and guards of Newton played a spectacular game throughout all four periods.

DEVILETTES SINK N. C. S. D.

Coach Gettys' Sextet marked up another conference win by beating N. C. S. D. by a 32-27 score. Watts played a good game for Newton, leading with 20 points.

DEVILETTES BOW TO RUTHERFORDTON-SPINDALE

The Newton girls suffered their first defeat on their home court from the tall Rutherfordton-Spindale girls. The Devilettes played one of their best games but the height of the visiting team was too much for them. The score was 42-36.

LINCOLNTON DOWNS NEWTON

The Newton Devilettes journeyed to Lincolnton to suffer their second conference loss by a 40-24 score.

The Lincolnton girls with a strong team outplayed the Newton girls in the fourth quarter.

DEVILETTES TAKE SHELBY

The fighting Devilette team racked up another victory by defeating Shelby by a score of 32-23. The Devilettes are showing more improvement in each game.

THE CARDINAL
EXPRESSES
TO ITS ADVERTISERS
FOR THEIR SUPPORT

Dear Thelma:

well I guess you can recall most of our wonderful memories. Hope they will always remain just as pleasant.

Remember the "giggle club" (7th grade).....

and the night we all spent with Ruby?

well I guess maybe I could go on forever but it would be better to stop.

If you and Ruth S. don't quit that giggling—(I don't guess I could do anything about it though).....

I guess I should close now.

Love always,
Juanita

P.S. Quit looking over my shoulder!

you're I. sweet
I be
it gotten

We managed to get five classes and homeroom together this year. Hope we do as well next year. Don't you?
(you don't have to answer that.).
